5 August 1982-

Dear John-

I received instruction to do an additional session with Rhea - due to extreme conditions of stressful nature. This session serves as a wrap-up to many events of discordant nature. It is not to be perceived as alarming, simply an essential procedure. The enclosed pages shall render sufficient understanding of today's activity. Love to you.

Gracefully -

TO: John E. Petzer, fondateur ESC.

(a precious founder shielded in gold)

Rheas function (in part) serves as a point of reference for all members (in the foundation and encompassing) as an example of the ultimate transmutation. Rheas condition has exaggerated a process of change from one nature to another. Her condition has provided a classic outline of ones own ability to move from one dimension (the physical) into another (the spiritual). It is to be emphasized that Rheas has exaggerated a process that has been, will be or is occurring for many members at present. Through acceptance of her condition and her presence one will receive an accessibility to divine guidance during their period of essential change. She serves as a silent guidepost. There is no need to call attention to her, for this would only create a disturbance. In her active intelligence she has willfully and dutifully chosen to actively work the path between mental-physical-spiritual levels and the third, fourth and extended dimensions.

On a cognisant level one is not aware of her presence, as she guides, teaches and comforts. On a subconscious level, deep within the psyche pool, there is no doubt as to her assistance. Her beauty has been restored to her. She appears angelic, robed, golden light crests her head. Her eyes are lively and eternal. She does not work alone, for to a degree it should be recognized that she is an apprentice. She resides with Pandora, who understands the unlimited fashions of evil that can be harbored in our containers. She walks with Rosa, who is an attribute of love living in a mountain between Switzerland and Italy in the Pennine Alps, the rose garden has enabled this link between her and Rosa, and has enabled a string of mysteries to emerge for subsequent resolution. These mysteries are emerging in each member of the foundation rosary.

In order to sustain a balanced evolution of consciousness in each individual, Rheas had rendered herself subservient to the will of the Father. Though her functions in the physical appear to be lacking, her activities in the fourth dimension are full and total. She walks a part of each persons consciousness between levels, she is coaxing and training them to trust. She is undaunted, fearless and firm. Yet, she is still a babe in Babel. She too needs support. The masters call her baba. Meaning, old woman. The reference to this is one of endearment. There is a dichotomy here. In one sense she understands and fully computers her functions. On the other hand, when others interfere with her and disrupt her field, she experiences confusion. This confusion we have referred to as Babel. This is what we meant by saying she is still a babe in Babel. She is surrounded by a confused mixture of sounds or voices. She is the tower intended for use to take you to heaven, just as the Tower of Babel was intended to reach heaven. It is important that she is reinforced just like any other structure, and that is the purpose for todays session. To keep the tower strong. To reassure and support her energies. To clean off from her any forces that may weaken her constitution. Recently you have witnessed a maudlin unlike any other, appear in the fibre of all around you. This saturated cloth of emotionalism is simply the release of negative elements from our box. The body represents Pandoras Box. Thought forms and negative entities represent the contents of the box. Remember, pray until you are hallowed. Meaning, hollowed. Rhea has hollowed herself out so the divine spirit can reverberate throughout her holy temple. Yes, she has amplified this example. In order for others to see, it was necessary for her to exaggerate to the fullest extent this illustration. Today, time shall be utilized to refurbish this Isthmus of Corinth., this divine passage way between the bodies of many ancient dimensions. And this polishing will be felt by all members, it shall promote an activity that sustains continuity of movement so as to assure growth.

Do not limit your understanding of her and her function to these words. Rhea is involved in a variety of facets, there are many aspects to her. She keeps company with an array of light beings, We are pleased to bring to you this particle, this wholeness of truth which is yet only a part component.
Component - composition of one entity.

COMP	ONE	ENT
composition		entity
		(to read reversed, ten 10 -one with a value of all) reflective of wholeness
		The number ten says, I am all one, I am a part of the whole.
